Budget Billing: a great option with Automatic Bill Payment (ACH)

Budget billing is a plan where the same amount is paid each month, regardless of usage. With Budget Billing a credit is built up during low usage months to help cover the higher bills of the cold weather months. A review of your account will indicate what the budget billing monthly payments will be. If you have any questions or would like to sign-up, give us a call.

Credit Card Payment

H-D Electric also offers members payment(s) by credit card. If you have any questions or would like to sign-up, give us a call.
